VICTIMS OF THE FLOOD

Five More People Meet Death in the Mississippi.

A MOTHER AND FOUR CHILDREN.

They Were Washed From a Railroad Trestle by the Strong Current—The River Still Rising—Heavy Rainfall Throughout the Entire Valley—Hundreds of People Utterly Destitute.

MEMPHIS, March 19.—The great flood claims five more victims. Near Marion, Ark., Etta Lix and her four children were trying to make their way to Marion for shelter, and while attempting to cross a railroad trestle, the strong current overwhelmed the party and all perished. The oldest child was a girl aged 16 and the youngest an infant of eight months.

The river is still rising at Memphis and the indications are that it will continue to do so for some time to come. The river now stands at 36 feet 9 inches.

The conclusion as to a continuation in the rise is based upon the fact that the rise is continuing at Cairo and the further fact which is behind the rise at Cairo, namely, that of heavy rains in all districts which feed the big river both along the upper portion and the middle valley. Throughout the entire northwestern territory, the drainage from which swells the volume of water in the upper Mississippi, these rainfalls continue. The same conditions prevail in the territory which feeds the Ohio and other tributaries, while the heaviest rains of all are descending over the already submerged Arkansas territory.

On the eastern side of the river continuous rains are the rule.

At Memphis and throughout this district, the rainfall in the last 24 hours amounted to 2.64 inches, while across the river at Helena it was 2.42 inches. So long as the heavy rains continue, there is small chance of a cessation of the overflow.

At Cairo the rise continues in about the same proportion, two-tenths of a foot being recorded in the past 24 hours, when the gauge indicated 50 feet. This is 10 feet above the danger line and within two feet and a fraction of the high water mark reached about a week ago.

At Helena, where the rainfall was almost as heavy as at Memphis, being 2.42 inches, the river rose eight-tenths of a foot in the past 24 hours, when the gauge indicated 46.7 feet, which is 9.7 feet above danger line.

At Vicksburg the river rose another eight-tenths of a foot, the gauge registering 42.7 feet, which is 1.7 feet above the danger line.

At Greenville the rise in the 24 hours was six-tenths of a foot, 39.8 feet being registered on the gauge. This is within two-tenths of a foot of the danger line. At Shreveport and New Orleans the river continues to rise.

The work of rescue and relief goes forward with unabated zeal.

Four or five rescue steamers arrived here bringing several hundred refugees, nearly all of whom are destitute, to be cared for by the charity of Memphis people. The relief committee has its hands full. As long as the overflow continues funds will be needed to relieve the immediate pressing wants of the flood sufferers. Inasmuch as all of the sufferers practically are residents of Arkansas, the relief committee telegraphed to Governor Jones of that state, asking his co-operation in relieving the dire distress in which thousands of the people of his state were. The governor replied that there were no funds at his disposal.

The local relief committee have sent out an appeal to the individual citizens of Arkansas, Tennessee and Mississippi.

The Yazoo Valley railroad has abandoned its trains, owing to the encroachment of the water over its tracks a few miles south of Memphis. The railroad situation on the Arkansas side of the river remains unchanged, all trains entering the city over the Iron Mountain tracks which remain a few inches above the water.

LEVEE ABOUT GOING OUT.

The People Have Been Warned and Are Fleeing For Their Lives.

HELENA, Ark., March 19.—The river at Helena is 47 feet on the gauge, which is 1.1 feet below the high water mark. The river at Westover is six inches higher than ever known before and at Old Town, six miles below Westover, the water is three inches above the highest water mark, and at Modoc, it is 36 inches higher than ever before.

Advices from Modoc are to the effect that it is impossible to hold the levee at that point much longer. The gentlemen who are in charge of the work have given up the task, their work having been in vain, although they have labored valiantly to hold it. The people who are living in that neighborhood have been warned of the impending disaster and are fleeing for their lives. The water at this hour is going over the top of the levee in that vicinity.

The steamer Abbott, a government boat, is now loading up at Modoc with sacks and implements and laborers and will go to Old Town, where work will be prosecuted to strengthen the levee. Half of the force will be left at Modoc to further endeavor to save the levee if possible.

Outlook Very Serious.

VICKSBURG, Miss., March 19.—The crevasse at Glendale, in Coahoma county, appears to be the most serious disaster that has affected the Yazoo-Mississippi delta in years, and will probably flood a large portion of the section. It will gradually send a flood of water into Yazoo river by way of its tributaries, and as the swamps are full of water already, the outlook is very serious.

Levees Will Be Tested.

ARKANSAS CITY, Ark., March 19.—The river has reached 46 feet. The prospects are that the levee will be severely tested. The river is rising at the rate of six-tenths of a foot in 24 hours.

BONDS OF WINTER BROKEN.

Rivers in the Northwest Have Been Turned Into Raging Torrents.

OMAHA, March 19.—Special telegrams to The Bee from all points in the northwest indicate that the bonds of winter were simultaneously broken yesterday and the streams that have been bound in ice for months are suddenly turned to raging torrents. The worst reports come from South Dakota. Along the Missouri the settlers are fleeing from rapidly increasing floods and nothing definite can be told further.

The snow that capped the state lay from four to six feet deep on the level. Two days of warm weather and two nights of rain have set this all running to the river. At Pierce, the Cheyenne and Bad rivers; at Chamberlain, the White; at Yankton, the Big and Little Sioux rivers lower down, and the flood at Sioux City are pouring their torrents into the ice in the Missouri, which has not yet broken. The lowlands are flooded and the rivers are rising with frightful rapidity. All of the worst apprehensions of the winter are realized. The Platte river, swollen to more than its usual spring height, is rushing into the Missouri, carrying with it the debris of wrecked bridges and farmyards in its valley. The Elkhorn adds its flood to the Platte and all the valleys seem to be afloat.

From Iowa come stories of ice gorges on the Des Moines river at Fort Dodge and Madrid, flooding miles of the bottoms and doing great damage. So far as is known only one life has been lost. Harry Paville, a farmer of Dixon county, was drowned while trying to cross a bridge over a swollen stream.

It is very warm and a warm rain is falling. This indicates a tremendous increase in the floods before another day.

TORNADO IN TEXAS.

Many Buildings Damaged and Other Property Destroyed.

DALLAS, March 19.—A severe windstorm passed over the state yesterday evening, which, in some places, assumed the appearance of a cyclone. The Houston and Central railway office at Plano, 17 miles north of here, reports that the gale levelled the sheds of the Cotton Belt and Central roads, blew over freight cars and unroofed several residences. A number of persons were injured at Plano, but none were killed.

A terrific tornado, accompanied by heavy rain and hail, struck Dennison at about 9:30 last night, and although nobody is badly hurt it did many thousands of dollars damage, houses being blown off their foundations and some demolished, chimneys and fences torn down, plate glass broken and other smaller items. The wind seems to have been divided into two parts before it struck the city, one part coming in southern part of the town and the other first striking in the extreme southwestern corner of the city limits.

At Hutchinson, 12 miles south of here, fences, trees and outbuildings were blown over. Considerable damage was done by the storm in the vicinity of Itaska, Hill county. Damage is also reported from Fort Worth, Sherman and McKinney.

All the wires are down south and east. Rain, which has been falling intermittently for four days, continues. The storm is thought to have been severe in remote portions of the state where telegraphic communication is interrupted.

CHILD HEIRESS KIDNAPED.

No Other Explanation For the Disappearance of Little Ella Burden of St. Louis.

St. LOUIS, March 19.—Ella Burden, 11 years old, heiress to $100,000, has been inexplicably missing from her home since Monday. She lived with her grandmother, Mrs. Burden, at 5092 Minerva street, and left home Monday for the Dozier school, where she is regarded as one of the brightest and prettiest of the several hundred pupils.

At 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the usual hour, she left the school for home and went part of the way with several other girls, to a point where she usually took the car for home. Nothing has been heard of her since. Her father, who is married the second time, has permitted the child to live with his mother, which was the dying request of her mother several years ago. The child frequently went to her father's, and her grandmother, thinking she was there, thought nothing of her absence until late at night, when her father failed to bring her home. The alarm was at once given.

Mr. Burden has every agency possible at work for her discovery. He declares the only possible theory for her disappearance is that she was kidnaped and is being held by her captors until a sufficient reward is offered. Ella is a beautiful child and well grown for her age. A large reward is offered for her return.

Disagreement on the Wage Scale.

ELWOOD, Ind., March 19.—The employees of the window glass factory are out on a disagreement and National President Simon Burns has been sent for. The men objected to working after 10 o'clock p. m., while the company says it is impossible to arrange differently on some days so that they can get in their six hours before that time.

GREEK VESSEL SUNK

Fired on by an Austrian Gunboat Near Candia.

THE CREW ALL SWAM ASHORE.

It Is Feared That the Great Crisis Will Be Precipitated When the People of Athens Hear the News—Crete Blockade Proclaimed—War Preparations Being Kept Up—Latest Cretan War Advice.

CANIA, March 19.—The Austrian gunboat Sebenico has fired upon and sunk, near Candia, a Greek vessel loaded with provisions and munitions of war intended for the Greek forces in Crete. The Sebenico, under the orders of the British admiral commanding the British squadron, was patrolling off Cape Dia, Crete, when the schooner hove in sight. The schooner was hailed by the gunboat and the insurgents in reply opened fire upon the Sebenico, whereupon the latter turned her guns on the schooner and sank her. The crew all swam ashore.

It is feared that when this news becomes generally known in Athens it will serve to greatly irritate the populace and may have influence in precipitating the crisis which the powers are striving in every way possible to avert.

There was severe fighting yesterday outside Candia. The insurgents attacked the military cordon near Yefera, about four miles west of Candia. Reinforcements were sent as they were needed, until 11 companies of regulars and seven companies of temporarily enrolled gendarmes had gone to the front. Altogether 3,000 men were engaged in the conflict, which lasted six hours. The losses of the insurgents are unknown.

The fighting on Wednesday outside Retimo was provoked by Mohammedans. Both the insurgents and Mohammedans had five killed and many wounded.

Fighting was continued yesterday at the village of Monastir.

A number of French and Italian officers have been sent to the camp of Colonel Vassos to demand that his troops embark to leave the island within 36 hours. The officers have not yet returned.

The Austrian consul has joined the British consul, Sir Alfred Billiotti, in demanding modification of the proclamation of autonomy. The telegraph office has refused to transmit an admiral's cipher message to Constantinople.

The law courts of Cania have been pillaged, the pillagers carrying off documents worth hundreds of thousands of drachmas to the Christians.

A telegram from Larissa reports that there have been various movements by the Turkish troops along the frontier. Two thousand of the Ellassona corps have occupied the plain between Domonico and Damassi. An entire army corps has been transferred from Monastir to Jania.

The foreign troops who are to constitute the occupying force of the powers have been located as follows: The French will occupy Sidia and Spinalonga; the British, Candia; the Russians, Retimo; the Germans, Cania and Sada Bay.

The Russian commander has already notified the governor of Retimo of his intention to land 300 troops.

The Greek warship Pinios is still here.

The Cretans declare that before attempting autonomy they must know the details of the scheme.

BLOCKADE PROCLAIMED.

The War Preparations in Greece Being Kept Up.

ATHENS, March 19.—In the bonds yesterday afternoon M. Skouzes, the Greek minister of foreign affairs, announced that the foreign admirals had proclaimed a blockade of Crete to begin next Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. Under its terms no Greek vessel would be allowed to enter Cretan ports. The vessels of other nations must obtain permission from the admirals.

The official announcement of the blockade of Crete did not produce much of a display of feeling either in the boulevards or on the part of the public. The sinking of the Greek vessel by the Sebenico on the other hand is denounced with indignation as a crime committed by a civilized state.

Great quantities of provisions and stores have been sent to Crete. It is believed that they will easily run the blockade, especially if the weather happens to be rough.

There is no cessation in the military preparations. The government is buying all the horses it can produce in Hungary and elsewhere.

Telegrams from the Macedonian frontier declare the situation as one of the utmost activity and of expectation of war at an early date. The Greeks are working hard to improve the roads. All the outposts are connected by telegraph with headquarters at Larissa, where a searchlight has been fixed. Both Greeks and Turks are suffering from the cold. The crown prince is expected daily.

Telegrams from the European capitals indicate that the powers are still negotiating for joint occupation of Crete with 10,000 troops.

MUST ACT AT ONCE.

The Admirals Now Have Full Charge of the Business in Crete.

NEW YORK, March 19.—A dispatch to The Herald from St. Petersburg, says: France's attitude in not abandoning the unity of the powers is universally praised here.

The Novoe Vremya says: "It has solidified the position of the Meline ministry." The Cretan question is now looked upon here as having entirely left the realm of diplomacy until the Greeks have retired. Full powers have been given to the admirals, who now have the responsibility of the settlement of the question, and they are instructed to act with all the promptitude possible and with the advice of the consuls on the spot, who know well the subtleties habitually practiced by the Cretans, and will thus know how to act without hesitation.

Should the Greeks under Colonel Vassos desert from the army en masse to become volunteers, as it has been said they would, it will not save them, but merely be looked upon as again showing that Greece is trifling with the powers and will be met accordingly. But any further ruse on the part of Greece will be very unwise. The feeling here is that matters look well, all the more so as reliable information seems to show that the war feeling in Greece has simmered down.

RUSSIA WILL AID TURKEY.

One of Her Warships About to Go Through the Dardanelles.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 19.—The officials of the Russian embassy here have notified the Turkish government of the fact that a Russian transport, having on board troops intended to form the contingent of Russia for the occupation of the island of Crete, according to the program drawn up by the admirals, will shortly pass through the Dardanelles. The embassies of the other powers have not raised any objections to this proceeding although, by treaty, the straits are closed to the warships of foreign nations.

A military committee is discussing the expediency of summoning the last line of reserves, which would bring the whole number under colors to more than 500,000. Additional ordnance has been sent to the Dardanelles which are constantly strengthened to the complete neglect of the Bosphorus.

The Imperial Ottoman bank advanced only at the last moment the £60,000 required by the porte for military expenses. The misery of the Turkish troops is intense. Their wages have not been paid for the last nine months, and many officers are selling their arms and uniforms to get food.

Warships Fire on the Cretans.

LONDON, March 19.—Official dispatches received here from the island of Crete say that the Cretan insurgents attacked the Turkish position at Sitia yesterday. The French and British warships each fired a shot, whereupon the Cretans retired. It is added that a French lieutenant was fired on by insurgents at a distance of 200 yards, which is pointed as showing the determined attitude of the Cretans.

England Silent.

LONDON, March 19.—Apparently the blockade of the island of Crete does not begin until Sunday, next, but the situation is very puzzling. Sir William Harcourt tried to obtain light on the subject yesterday in the house of commons, but Mr. Balfour refused to be drawn into any definite statement on the subject.

Force Along the Greek Frontier.

NEW YORK, March 19.—A dispatch to The Herald from Salonica says: It is officially stated that 114 battalions of Turkish infantry, 45 batteries of artillery and six regiments of cavalry, approximately 100,000 men, are now distributed along the Greek frontier.

SCRAP IN HAWAII.

Japanese Threaten Trouble to All the Anglo-Saxons.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—The following advices from Honolulu were brought by the steamship Australia: Serious trouble is anticipated here over the refusal of the customs authorities to permit the landing of 537 Japanese laborers brought here recently by the Kobe Immigration company's steamer Shinshu Maru. The local agents of the Japanese company have been placed under arrest, charged with violation of the laws, and Captain Mischaki, commander of the steamer, has been refused clearance papers unless he agrees to take back to Japan the rejected immigrants, who have been detained at the quarantine station since their arrival in port.

The rejected Japanese threaten open revolt and they have the sympathy of the entire Japanese population of the island. It has been carried into the courts, and if the Japanese fail to find relief there they will probably appeal to their consuls. In case the consuls do not interfere trouble is sure to follow. The customs authorities are sure that they have unearthed a gigantic attempt to import Japanese into this country in violation of the immigration laws and they propose to make it so warm for the schemers that they will not dare attempt it again.

The feeling runs equally strong against the Anglo-Saxons of Honolulu. There is a diversion of opinion on the part of the present lot of immigrants whether or not to remain on the islands. While the bulk of the people are now informed on the law touching immigration of Japanese into Hawaii, either free or contract, still the belief is current that there is a defect in the statutes. The men placed under arrest are: J. W. Gallaher, agent; B. Hulissee, president of the immigration company. By reason of their prominence both men were released on their own recognizance. At present the affair stands in statu quo pending the action of the courts.

DUNKIRK, N. Y., March 19.—The Brooks locomotive works are to be started up on full time and with a full force. This means work for 1,500 men.

TO SAVE THEMSELVES

Pearl Bryan's Murderers Make an Alleged Confession.

IT WILL HARDLY BE BELIEVED.

An Insane Doctor Said to Be the Third Party in the Case—A Money Consideration Brought Out the Statement It Is Believed That Governor Bradley Will Not Interfere—Hanging Arrangements.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 19.—As a last desperate resort to extort a respite from Governor Bradley, or a commutation of the sentence of himself and Alonzo M. Walling, Scott Jackson has made another so-called confession and Walling has signed it. Upon their arrest one year and six weeks ago, each confessed that the other committed the murder. Each has been in the confession business very frequently ever since. These written individual confessions signed by their respective authors were vague and evasive.

Now for the first time comes a confession prepared by Scott Jackson in the Alexandria jail and signed also by Alonzo M. Walling to be sent to Governor Bradley. That confession is now in his hands. It is voluminous, somewhat evasive and not a little foggy. It justifies the general exclamation, "Who will believe it?" which was heard everywhere on the streets when the announcement was made that a confession had been obtained. It was secured for a big money consideration, the proceeds to go to the mothers of the condemned men.

Its distinguishing characteristic is that it contradicts in almost every particular the theory of the defense in the long trials of each of these two men. During the trial witnesses were brought by the state from Bellevue, Ky., a village just above Newport, to prove that Jackson, Walling and Pearl Bryan were seen in that village about noon on the Thursday before the murder. The defense attacked the veracity of John Foster, one of the witnesses, and tried to show that Druggist Foerthmeyer, a second witness, had told contradictory stories about seeing the murderers and their victim. Now in this confession the scene of the immediate preliminaries of the murder is transferred to Bellevue, Ky., on Wednesday and Thursday nights, Jan. 29 and 30, 1896.

Dr. Wagner of Bellevue, Ky., is involved in the murder by this confession. At the time of the trial there was a trace of a rumor that Dr. Wagner might have had some complicity in the affair. This was effectually silenced by evidence believed at the time that Dr. Wagner was absent during the week of the Pearl Bryan murder. Since that time he has been an inmate of the lunatic asylum at Lexington, Ky. Mrs. Wagner still persists that her husband was absent during that week and furthermore that she never saw Jackson or Walling or Pearl Bryan, and in this her daughters join her.

This confession that the preparations for the murder were made in Bellevue depends for corroboration on the testimony of John Foster, Druggist Foerthmeyer and a woman who saw the parties from a distance, all of which was fiercely resisted by the defense in the trial. Should this attempt to implicate Dr. Wagner succeed in moving the governor, an indictment by a grand jury would be expected to follow, and a trial of Dr. Wagner, in which Jackson and Walling would be the only witnesses. By many this is regarded as the motive of the whole thing. It took Scott Jackson the whole of one afternoon and night to write it.

To any one who has read carefully Governor Bradley's statement of his reasons for refusing a respite or commutation of sentence it will be at once apparent that one purpose of this confession is to give him a possible ground for favorable action that was lacking in former applications.

Meantime advices from Newport are that the scaffold and ropes for two, are in readiness for the hanging of the criminals on Saturday.

News from Alexandria, where the prisoners are immured, is that the announcement of a new confession has caused great excitement in Campbell and adjacent counties in Kentucky; that it has brought people from the country to the town in gentle humor, and that while the prisoners would be in no danger from citizens of Alexandria, yet there is no knowing what violent result might follow a commutation of the sentences of Jackson and Walling, unless the grounds for it would be better than any one believed possible for them to furnish.

The prisoners will be removed to the Newport jail tonight and by noon a company of militia will be on the ground to guard the Newport jail.

It is not believed here that Governor Bradley will interfere further.

Confession Made Public.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 19.—Confessions of Scott Jackson and Alonzo Walling have just been presented to Governor Bradley by Special Messengers Wade, Ellis and Allison. The confession says that Dr. Wagner administered medicine in attempting to perform an abortion, under which Pearl Bryan died. Jackson held her across his lap while Wagner cut her head off. Wagner wrapped the head in a cloak and took it home. He afterward became insane. They did not know where the head was.

FRIDAY, MARCH 19, 1897.

FITZSIMMONS, champion of the world, is anxious to retire with the honors he won this week. He announces that he has abandoned the prize ring forever for his wife and baby. That's commendable in him, and it is to be hoped that he will stick to his resolution.

The Hon. William G. Deering, of Flemingsburg, is mentioned in connection with the candidacy for Circuit Judge. Mr. Deering is an able lawyer and did valiant service for the Republican ticket during the recent campaign.—Public Ledger.

Trot him out. The Democrats would like to get a crack at him. You ought to do something for him in return for his "valiant service for the Republican ticket" last fall.

The BULLETIN is evidently looking for a soft place to alight. Tuesday's issue contained the following scathing denunciation of the recent course of that paper.—Public Ledger.

While the BULLETIN "contained" the denunciation referred to, it appeared in the Germantown news and was simply the opinion of our faithful correspondent at that place of the course of the Bracken County Democratic Committee, not of the BULLETIN. The BULLETIN is not looking "for a soft place to alight."

EDITOR KELLER writing from Frankfort to his paper, the Castile Mercury, says:

One of the most ridiculous things I have heard since I came here was what one of the members of the State Board of Equalization told me. He said his board was contemplating adding 25 per cent. to the entire assessment of the State. The law says this board shall "equalize" the assessments as between the counties of the State, but it no where authorizes them to increase all property assessments. The courts would soon show this board a thing or two. But no one need be surprised at what the "short babies" here may undertake.

As Br'er Duley of the Flemingsburg Times-Democrat remarked a few days ago, if the State Board has the power to increase the assessments in such a manner, where was the necessity for calling the Legislature together at great expense to increase the rate of taxation? The board could have raised the assessment high enough to insure all the revenue needed.

Roadmaking by Convicts.

Chicago Record: "The only way prisoners can be employed without competing with free labor is to put them to work on public improvements that could not be constructed for years to come but for the utilization upon them of labor of this sort. In this way there may be secured improvements of inestimable value for all time that the public might not have felt warranted in constructing under other circumstances. There is no doubt that good roads would be worth almost any amount to a community, but it is practically impossible to get taxing bodies to take from the people the sums necessary for their construction. Making of good roads would be in many respects ideal employment for a portion of the State's convicts, and the proposition so to employ them has been revived in New York. The chief objection to the plan, peculiarly enough, is a sentimental one. It is argued that the popular sense would revolt at the sight of convicts under guard while at work in the presence of the public. This objection has some weight, but it should not be made to appear inseparable."

DEFEAT AWAITS HUNTER.

Such is the News From Frankfort—The Doctor Promised Offices To Too Many Men, And They Exposed Him.

[Enquirer.]

FRANKFORT, KY., March 17.—Dr. Hunter will be defeated for the Senate. This announcement can be made with reasonable certainty. Seated in the Capital Hotel lobby to-night, nervously twisting his whiskers, Dr. Hunter had every appearance of being a thoroughly discouraged man, and well he may be.

Nearly every Republican member of the Legislature wants an office under McKimley, and wants it bad. They all think Dr. Hunter can get any office they want. Since the doctor's nomination it has developed that promises have been made to three or four members for each office in Kentucky. These men have since compared notes, and, as a result, several more Republicans to-day joined the league that is forming to elect Bradley over Hunter.

The "pie" men realize that Hunter can not give the same office to three men, so they want to vote for some one else. Salyer's death and Ogilvie's absence leaves only sixty-four Democrats in the Legislature. Edgington and Poor, the Populists, will vote with the Democrats straight through this session. This makes sixty-six votes, and it will take but four disappointed pie hunters to elect Gov. Bradley, if he be the man upon whom the opposition to Hunter concentrates.

There may be five to six Democrats that will decline to go into this coalition, but there are three times this many Republicans to take their places.

The beauty about the scheme is that it has been worked in such a manner that the Hunter people think that only three or four Republicans are disgruntled, when the truth is that four times that number have positively signified their intention to vote against Hunter. The whole thing is complete to-night, and the combine has a margin of 8 or 10 votes to play on.

The finishing touches will be put on between now and next Tuesday, and, to show that the promoters have confidence in their success, a Republican put up $500 in the hands of Senator Jack Gross to-night to bet that Hunter would not be the next Senator. The Contest Committee in the Bell-Crumbaugh case met to-night and elected W. H. Clark (Rep.) Chairman, and fixed Friday afternoon for hearing the evidence in the case.

[Times-Star.]

FRANKFORT, KY., March 18.—The most significant development of the senatorial fight since it began here came out to-day when the Bradley leaders on the Republican side threw off the cloak of secrecy and openly admitted that they are working in concert with the Blackburn people to defeat Hunter with Governor Bradley. Ex-State Senator Ed. Parker, who is the leader in the Bradley movement and confidential messenger between the Republicans and Democrats who are in the deal, said to the Times-Star this morning: "Yes, we are working for Bradley, and there is not a shadow of doubt about his election. I tell you this now because we have our fight won and it is no longer necessary to work secretly in our organization."

He was asked if he spoke by authority of Governor Bradley, to which he replied in the negative, saying the latter had no part or lot in the fight being made for him.

"The Blues" Have a Very Bad Case of the Blues—Captain Cox's Boys in the Lead.

Well! Well! Well!!!
May be "The Reds" didn't show "The Blues" a thing or two yesterday. Captain Kackley and his crowd of workers had a lead of two yesterday morning, but when the day closed the score stood 5 to 3 in favor of "The Reds." And the end is not yet.

The Ledger has set itself up as the champion of "The Blues." Well "The Reds" shall not lack for a defender. In the BULLETIN editor they have a staunch advocate. But at the same time "The Blues" can count on just and courteous treatment.

If "The Blues" don't hurry up and do something they will have to be classed as rank quitters.

D. P. ORT, Chief of Police.

The dyspeptic carries a dreadful load on his back. It seems as if he were really made up of two men. One of them ambitions, brainy and energetic; the other sick, listless, peevish and without force. The weak man weighs the other one down. The dyspeptic may be able to do pretty good work one day, and the next day because of some little indiscretion in eating, he may be able to do nothing at all. Most cases of dyspepsia start with constipation. Constipation is the cause of nine-tenths of human sickness. Some of its symptoms are sick and bilious headache, dizziness, sour stomach, loss of appetite, foul breath, windy belchings, heartburn, pain and distress after eating. All these are indicative of derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels, and all are cured by constipation. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the quickest, easiest and most certain cure for this condition. They are not violent in action.

DON'T FEEL PAIN.

The Kaffir's Extra Skin is Very Often a Great Protection.

[Exchange.]

Nearly everybody knows that the Kaffir has an extra skin beyond the number apportioned to the white man, and the fact of this additional article may account for the extraordinary insensibility of this race to physical pain. The following facts are vouched for by a writer as being absolutely correct:

In a smithy near Bloemfontein one afternoon some one noticed a strong and pungent smell as of flesh burning. On inquiry being made it was discovered that a stout Kaffir boy was standing barefooted on a red-hot horseshoe which had somehow fallen on the ground. Strange as it may seem he had not the slightest knowledge that the burning mass was beneath his foot, and, although an enormous blister was soon raised, he averred that he felt no pain whatever.

All black men have the reputation of owning thick skulls, but what will be thought of the Kaffir who fell from a second-story window, about fifteen feet, bumping his head on the ground as he fell, and who rose after a few seconds, brushed the dust from his hair, and pursued his way, laughing at the incident?

Another instance of this extraordinary insensibility to suffering comes from a cycle maker's shop in Johannesburg. A Kaffir, in the course of his work, had the whole of his forefinger nail on the right hand torn off by the machinery. In an instant he plunged the mutilated member into a vat containing boiling alum and bore the pain with simply a slight wince. By resorting to this course he showed himself an adept in the art of self-cure, for a day or two later the finger was painless, and the nail soon grew again. But the extraordinary part of the business is that a process which would probably have made the ordinary white man lose consciousness did nothing more in the case of the Kaffir than elicit a grin of pain.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderson, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work, and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 60c and $1.

CALICOES.—Medium colors, all pretty, good substantial prints, marked regularly at 5c., for Friday and cash, 3c. This is where half dollars will do dollar duty.

TEMPTING REMNANTS.—The only disadvantage of our big Dress Goods selling is the accumulation of remnants. But if you can fit your needs to the sizes of the remnants our loss is your gain. A few skirt lengths in the lot and many suitable for waists and children's dresses.

EMBROIDERY BEAUTY.—We are not losing any money on the regular 20c. Cambric Embroideries we will sell Friday at 13c. a yard. Someone buys, of course, but the loss is in far-away Switzerland. OUTLOOK FOR FRUIT.

H. F. Hillenmeyer, the Nurseryman, Gives Some Views on the Subject—Apples, Pears and Peaches.

[H. F. Hillenmeyer in Midway Clipper.]

The apple is the great staple fruit of every farm and the crop last season was very scant, by reason of the excessive yield of the previous year; the trees are in perfect order to do their best. The apple and pear are congenious, and full yields of the one imply, ordinarily, perfect fruitage in the other.

The pip fruits yield full crops only in alternate years, while the stone fruits can at the same time mature full yields and gather resources for a second full fruitage. The fine crop of peaches last year in no way retracts from present chances of repetition this year. Cherries and plums follow this general law, but the prospect for these is not so favorable. The excessive and long continuing rains of last summer, induced much rust on the foliage of cherries and European plums, and the opinion is ventured, that while the bloom may be abundant the crop will either be scant or defective in quality. The American plums have resistant foliage, and, save nipped by untimely frost, we may again expect them in abundance.

Of all fruit plants, none equals the vine in capacity to do well under almost any circumstances, and the weather so favored that a repetition of last year's cornucopian yield seems assured.

The small fruits are all in perfect order and our markets are 'pretty sure to be filled with much better berries than for two or three years past.

Beginning in 1892 we have had a series of ivy years—very ivy in the autumn, and scant winter rainfall. Such conditions have militated seriously against the production of fruit of fine size and quality, and have rendered the trees and plants either unhealthy or prone to succumb to adverse conditions. It is from these same conditions that white clover has disappeared from our pastures, that bluegrass has seeded so sparsely, and that timothy meadows have yielded so unsatisfactorily. An ill-fed army, and poorly-clad, suffers demoralization and is inefficient, just as a want of favoring conditions renders plants unable to attain their usual development.

Since last May weather conditions have been ideal and we may reasonably expect that not only fruit plants, but the grasses as well, will this year give full evidence of their capability.

The most serious damage yet to be feared, is untimely frosts, and when we remember that as late of May 12th the most promising prospect has been utterly blasted, it were well not to be too certain of the final outcome.

Maysville's Fourth of July Celebration.
Maysville will have the greatest Fourth of July celebration and races this year it ever had in its known history. It will be held on the Maysville Fair Grounds on July 3rd, 1897, as the 4th comes on Sunday. The program will be one of the grandest ever gotten up, the special attractions will be wonderful, and in connection with this there will be an elevated stage erected, in front of the large grand stand, for some of America's finest vaudeville stars and novelties, which will be mentioned in the future. The trotting and running races will be one of the leading features of the day. The special attractions and vaudeville stars, and the purses on the races, will be mentioned through the columns of this paper in routine as they will appear on that day, July 3rd. The purses on the races will be first to appear about April 7th, as this will be the first attraction mentioned.

The Ideal Panacea.
James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store.

Money in Poultry.
Exchange: "There is more money in poultry for the amount invested and the time devoted to it than anything else the farmer raises. There is always a demand for fresh eggs and poultry at fair prices. Blood will tell in chickens as in other fowls and animals, and the size and laying capacities of hens can be greatly improved by proper care. A good chicken will not eat any more nor require more care than one of the common breed. Much has been done in the way of improving the breed of chickens through poultry associations."

Name of a Queen's Jubilee Philanthropist Leaks Out.
LONDON, March 19.—Despite the extraordinary efforts to maintain secrecy concerning the identity of the donor of $500,000 to the University hospital in commemoration of the queen's jubilee, the name has leaked out. The philanthropist is Sir J. Blundell Maple, the Tory member of parliament for Dulwich, one of the electoral divisions of this city, and who has made an immense fortune in the department store business. He was knighted by the queen a few years ago.

The second monthly list of annual pledges to the Prince of Wales' hospital fund was issued yesterday, and William Waldorf Astor still occupies the position of honor at the head of the column with his guarantee of £1,000, or $5,000 yearly. Under the rule that gives royal precedence, however, the subscriptions of the Duke of York, heir apparent to the throne, and of his two infant sons, appear above that of Mr. Astor. The duke and duchess guarantee $100 annually, and the infant sons $5 each. The result of this conjunction of names and amounts is to bring the American's princely gift into even bolder relief than would otherwise be possible.

BLINDED THE CLERK.

Thieves Seized a Tray of Valuable Diamonds and Got Away.
SPOKANE, Wash., March 19.—The most daring robbery ever committed in this city took place last evening, when a tray containing $3,500 worth of diamond rings was stolen from the jewelry store of I. Dosenburg, situated on a popular thoroughfare, and at a time when the sidewalks were lined with people.

A well dressed man entered the store and asked to be shown some diamond rings. Max Goldstein, a clerk, who was in charge of the store at the time, brought out a tray of diamond rings from the safe. As he placed the tray on the showcase he was blinded by a handful of powder thrown into his face. The robber, grabbed his tray of rings and hurried out "and despite Goldstein's cries escaped with his booty."

ONE HUNDRED LIVES LOST.

Dutch Mail Steamer Wrecked Near the Island of Ushant.
LONDON, March 19.—A dispatch from Lloyd's agent at Brest says it is now greatly feared that the Dutch mail steamer Utrecht, which sailed from Rotterdam Feb. 28 for Batavia, Java, has foundered in the vicinity of Ushant, and that the 100 persons she had on board are lost.

The wreckage, etc., which was cast ashore at that place a week ago, and reported at the time, includes photographs of officers of that steamer, and a number of life buoys and cabin doors bearing the name "Utrecht."

The steamship should have been near the island of Ushant on March 4, when a terrible storm raged along the French coast and she has not been reported since.

Over a Thousand Killed in Battle.
MONTEVIDEO, March 19.—A battle between the federal troops and the revolutionists took place yesterday near Paysandu. Upward of 1,000 were killed or wounded. It is not yet reported which force was victorious.

SENATE AND HOUSE.

Both Sessions Short and Uneventful, Especially So in the House.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The session of the senate yesterday was brief and uneventful. A large number of bills were introduced and the first report of the session was received.

A smile went around the chamber when Mr. Stewart, a resident of Carson City, Nev., where the pugilistic contest occurred, offered a bill for the relief of one Corbett. It proved to be a private pension bill. One of the measures introduced by Mr. Gallinger proposed an amendment to the constitution prohibiting legislation in behalf of any religious denomination.

Mr. Turpie of Indiana gave notice of a speech next Tuesday on the election of senators by popular vote and introduced a resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution for that purpose.

The first report of the session was presented by Mr. Gear of Iowa from the committee on Pacific railroad debts by a commission consisting of secretary of the treasury, secretary of the interior and attorney general.

Mr. Gear asked that the bill be made the unfinished business of the senate with a proviso that it should not be taken up for a month. There was an objection, however, from Mr. Cockrell of Missouri and after considerable discussion the bill went to the calendar.

There was objection also to Mr. Gear's resolution calling on the attorney general for information as to the foreclosure proceedings against the Pacific roads.

Mr. Morgan of Alabama gave notice that he would later submit a minority report on the bill for a commission.

A resolution of Mr. Lodge of Massachusetts was agreed to instructing the committee on foreign relations to inquire whether the islands of St. Croix, St. Johns and St. Thomas of the West Indian group could be purchased by the United States, and if not whether there is probability of their sale to other powers.

At 1 o'clock the senate went into executive session and at 2 p. m. adjourned.

Short Session of the House.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The house was in session yesterday for only 15 minutes, and that time was consumed in the reading of the journal. The galleries were filled in anticipation of the opening of the tariff debate, but Mr. Henderson of Iowa announced that the ways and means committee was not ready to report and accordingly, on his motion, the house adjourned at 12:15.

PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENTS.
A Number of Men Named For Important Positions.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The president yesterday sent to the senate the following nominations:

Promises More Expenses.

POMEROY, O., March 19.—Word reached here from Portsmouth that the circuit court has arrested the sentence in the John B. Lindsay manslaughter case pending petition on error for hearing next October and fixed bond at $1,500. He was sentenced to the penitentiary last November from Meigs county for eight years for killing William H. Cundiff. The case has cost about $7,000.

OXFORD, Eng., March 19.—The honorary degree of doctor of civil law was conferred here yesterday upon D. D. Nansen, the Norwegian explorer, who was received with great enthusiasm by the students.

The Ryan toll-gate, near Flemingsburg, was destroyed a second time Tuesday night, and Freeman Prather, the keeper, was warned by the mob that if he attempted to collect any more toll he would be hanged and his house burned. The mob also left a note addressed to Hon. R. K. Hart, a director of the road, threatening to whitenap him if the gate is again put back. Five gates are now down in Fleming County, and nearly all the other gatekeepers have been warned to refrain from collecting.

On account of the extremely unfavorable weather the musicale which would have been given at Hayswood Seminary this evening, March 19th, will be postponed until Monday evening. The patron friends and those interested in the school are cordially invited.
